Public Comment Request Form

The Convention Center Authority of the Metropolitan Government of Nashville & Davidson County provides a public comment period at the beginning of each scheduled meeting. The guidelines for the public comment period permit no more than six (6) individuals to address the board at any single meeting, and each speaker will be limited to three (3) minutes to present to the board.

Requests to speak during the public comment period must be submitted in writing at least three days prior to the meeting. Requests should be emailed to ccapubliccommentperiod@nashvillemcc.com. Speakers will be notified via email whether they have been selected to speak at the meeting.
